

The Century: "Boom to Bust 1920-1929"

Name _____
Per. ____ Date _____ Row ____

1. What was "Prohibition" and how did some people respond to it? What happened as a result?
2. What was significant about the new architecture of the cities?
3. What did Broadway, Madison Avenue, and Wall Street stand for?
4. What was it like for the wealthy class in the 1920s?
5. What kind of music was influential at that time? Who were the artists at the forefront of this musical movement?
6. What was the Harlem Renaissance?
7. Where did most immigrants live in New York City and what was life like for them?
8. What impact did cities have on the rest of the country?
9. What was it like in the rural areas in the 1920s? What was a big deal that changed everything?
10. What was a new form of advertising in the 1920s and what brought it about? What role did advertising play in consumer culture in the 1920s?
11. What new form of media took off very quickly starting in 1920? How widespread did it become?

12. What happened to social patterns, especially with women, in the 1920s?
13. What was the impact of the media regarding these changes?
14. How did small town America react to the changes going on? How did the Scopes trials illustrate the clash between science and religion that was a going on at this time?
15. The Ku Klux Klan became more prominent in the 1920s in reaction to all the changes. What values did the KKK claim to stand for? What values did it really promote? Explain why it can be called a reactionary organization.
16. What role did sports play in American culture? Who was a "household name"?
17. Who was Charles Lindbergh and what national values did he represent?
18. What was the final frontier of flight and who reached it?
19. What general atmosphere seemed to exist that Pres. Herbert Hoover voiced and people believed in? What was "proof" of this?
20. What caused the stock market crash of 1929? What effect did it have on people?