

I. From Expansion to Imperialism

A. Foundations of Empire – discuss factors that favored imperialism; define American exceptionalism

II. The War of 1898, 1898-1899

A. "Remember the *Maine" – define

B. Teller Amendment – define

C. Philippines – discuss their significance and why they were considered so important to the U.S.

D. Cuba – discuss factors that aided U.S. victory; significance of San Juan Hill

E. Spoils of War – aftermath of war; issue with the Philippines; Treaty of Paris and aftermath

F. Insular Cases – define

G. Platt Amendment (1902) – define

III. A Power Among Powers

A. Theodor Roosevelt – views on foreign policy

B. The Open Door in Asia – define open door policy

C. Root-Takahira Agreement– define

D. The United States and Latin America – discuss Roosevelt's "big stick" policy and how the U.S. got land for the Panama Canal

E. Panama Canal – define

F. Roosevelt Corollary – define

IV. The United States in World War I

A. From Neutrality to War – define Zimmermann Telegram; why U.S. finally entered the war

B. War on the Home Front – define War Industries Board and National War Labor Board

C. Committee on Public Information – define

D. Four-Minute Men – define

E. Sedition Act of 1918 – define

F. Great Migration – define; new opportunities for African Americans

G. New opportunities – discuss life for Mexican immigrants and women

H. National Women's Party – define; Alice Paul; 19th Amendment

V. Catastrophe at Versailles

A. Fourteen Points – define; main points

B. League of Nations – define

C. The Fate of Wilson's Ideas – how Britain and France treated Germany; define Treaty of Versailles

D. Congress Rejects the Treaty – objections to the Treaty of Versailles; power dynamics of nations post WWI