

Corona-Norco Unified School District presents
THROUGH THE LENS OF EQUITY
 CONFERENCE
 AUGUST 2ND & 3RD, 2018

2nd ANNUAL

EQUITY IN EDUCATION

SUMMER OPPORTUNITY for CNUSD HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Save your spot now.
Scan and register below.

Step 1: Register for and attend the CNUSD Through the Lens Equity Conference on August 2, 2018.

Location
 Augustine Ramirez Intermediate School
 6905 Harrison Ave Eastvale, CA 92880

goo.gl/9Z2oXx

Step 2: Attend the keynote by spoken word poet, Sarah Kay, and/or the featured speaker, Kenneth B. Morris, Jr.

Scan here to learn more about spoken word poet, Sarah Kay.

Scan here to learn more about Kenneth B. Morris, Jr., Founder and Director Frederick Douglass Family Initiatives

Step 3: Ask a CNUSD employee at the registration table to sign you in and out.

Time in: _____ signature: _____

Time out: _____ signature: _____

Step 4: Take 3 selfies of yourself at the conference in front of displays, with your teachers, next to banners, etc.! (NO SELFIES DURING KEYNOTES PLEASE!)

Step 5: Write a minimum of 75 words responding to the prompt: What's worth talking about? What questions do you still have? What connections can you make to your life, readings, and/or learnings?

Submit these items to your Language Arts teacher and/or Social Studies teacher the first week of the 2018-2019 school year for extra credit or assignment substitution. *Extra credit or assignment substitution is teacher's discretion.

Want more?

Attend a special writer's workshop with Sarah Kay on the very same day!
 Sign up for Sarah Kay's breakout session using the Equity Conference App (launching May 21)--only 30 spots

Workshop for students only!