

Glossary for Stereotyping

Sociologists: scientists who study society and social groups

Machismo: acting in “masculine” ways, such as being strong and tough

Affirmation: symbols, something that confirms a belief

Prowess: ability

Inebriation: extreme drunkenness

Regimental: organized for a large number of soldiers belonging to the same group, or regiment

Exalted: high-ranking, glorious

Condescending: to treat another person as if they are inferior

Supremacist: one who adheres to the belief that a particular group (race, religion, gender, or nation) is better than all other groups

Metamorphose: to change into another form

Christened: named

Bigotry: prejudice, hatred for members of a particular group