

The Century: "Unpinned: 1965-1970"

Name _____

Per. _____ Row _____

1. What did the 1964 World Fair seem to reflect? Who felt frozen out of that?
2. What did blacks and whites set out to do in Mississippi in the summer of 1964? What happened to some students in the first group who went there? What impact did that have on the country?
3. How did the movement expand to other causes? What did students do as a major protest?
4. What did LBJ (Pres. Lyndon Baines Johnson) decide to do in Vietnam? Why?
5. What attitude or belief did American soldiers have about fighting and war? Why?
6. What did the U.S. military brass (leaders) want in the war? What ended up happening?
7. What other "war" did LBJ declare? What were some plans for it?
8. What happened in Selma, Alabama? Describe the events and actions of people, especially LBJ and Congress. Why were these actions so significant?
9. Why did some African Americans turn to Malcolm X for leadership? What was their philosophy?

10. Why were there riots in cities all over America?
11. What purpose did many musicians have in their songs?
12. What was the reaction in Haight-Ashbury?
13. Who else pushed for freedoms at this point? What actions did they take? Why?
14. Why were the North Vietnamese being so successful in the war?
15. What was the reality of combat like for Americans fighting there?
16. What role did TV play in the war? What did people at home begin to think about the war?
17. How did the government treat war protesters? How did protesters respond?
18. What did Americans begin to think when they heard of the Tet Offensive in Feb. of 1968?
What did this make LBJ do? How did that affect soldiers in Vietnam?
19. How did people respond to the death of Martin Luther King and Robert F. Kennedy?
20. What happened at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago?
21. Whom did America elect when it seemed the country was falling apart? What did he promise?